‘Borneo Integration II’ exhibition at State Library

BY NG KIANG CHIEW

KUCHING: The State Library in Petra Jaya near here will hold a “Borneo Integration II” exhibition from 9 to 13 April at the library’s lobby.

The exhibition will be held in collaboration with Universiti Malaysia Sabah (UMS).

UMS Faculty of Art Studies Visual Art Technology Programme second year students will display their works of art in 2D and 3D media. Drawings and exhibits from the Sarawakiana Collection will be on display. There will also be talks and presentations.

The exhibition will gauge the ability and experience of those involved in the management of the gallery and the university’s creativity and innovation in producing excellent graduates.

As many as 65 undergraduates and several lecturers from UMS will be involved in the management of the exhibition.

The talks will be on the customs and cultures of the ethnic tribes of Sabah and Sarawak.

The presenters will be from UMS, Universiti Malaysia Sarawak (UNIMAS) and the Sarawak Customs and Traditions Council (Majlis Adat Istiadat Sarawak).

Meanwhile, UMS lecturers and students will also hold their Student Dedication Programme (Program Bakti Siswa) at the Kuching Art School.

Members of the public are cordially invited to visit the exhibition and attend the talks.

Admission is free. For more information, please contact Izaruddin bin Moss at 082-442000 ext. 241 or email: izaruddin@sarawaknet.gov.my.
