English Language Arts Carnival on 14 April, anyone?

KUCHING: Come 14 April, the English Language Unit of Teachers Institute of Teachers Campus (IPG) Batu Lintang, Kuching Sarawak will be having a fun-filled day of activities for primary school children, English Language Teachers and parents at the English Language Arts Carnival.

There will be stories, jazz chants, nursery rhymes and poems galore. Students from the institute will be taking the children through a wide variety of activities such as games, readers, theatre as well craft activities. English Language teachers and parents can pick up useful tips for activities that they can carry out in their class or at home.

The carnival will also be supported by the Scholastic Book Club and University Book Store Kuching who be setting up booths with books for sale.

Teachers and pupils from the Kuching, Padawan and Bau school districts, lecturers and undergraduates from the Tun Abdul Razak Institute, Kampus Rajang and Kampus Sarawak are all invited.

Teachers who have yet to receive an invitation and parents who have children in primary schools who wish to attend can contact Angelia Lee or Shirley Soo at (082) 243594 or (082) 243501 for details.
