APRIL 12-15: Expect a load of laughter in Freddy Tan’s comedy about a sarcastically humorous man who is destined to change the world. He faces many difficulties in life due to the clash between his lust for a sense of humour and the literal world that he lives in. Leading the cast are Erin Marie, Jen Yee and Jeremy Ooi. Tickets: RM23 and RM33. Showtime: 8.30pm, except on Sunday when it is at 3pm.

APRIL 18-20: Laugh out loud with British Theatre Playhouse’s Out of Order, English playwright Ray Cooney’s most successful play. It has enjoyed success in London’s West End at the Shaftesbury Theatre and won the prestigious Laurence Olivier Award as best new comedy. All the ingredients of true farce are included – unfaithful husbands, cuckolded husbands (and wives) arriving at the wrong moment, rushing in and out of bedrooms and just missing pretty mistresses. Will anyone notice a dead body hanging out of their hotel room window? Directed by David Warwick. Leading the cast are Robin Kermode, Nick Wilton and Jolana Lee. Tickets are priced at RM245++ and RM265++ inclusive of a three-course western dinner. Showtime: 7pm.

USIKAN REBAB
Pentas 2
Kuala Lumpur Performing Arts Centre

APRIL 18-22: The conflicts and frustration of a former Mak Yong artiste comes to life in The Actors Studio Seni Teater Rakayat’s Usikan Rebab. The play, an adaptation of Bisikan Rebab II, is about Mak Nab (played by award-winning dancer Zamzuriah Zahari) whose desire to impart her knowledge of the traditional dance theatre faces a dead-end with her three daughters who have different aspirations in life. In the 60-minute monodrama, director Norzizi Zulkiflii touches on issues concerning divergence of religion and decline of Mak Yong as a traditional art form performance. The play is in Bahasa Malaysia and Kelantanese dialect with English subtitles. Tickets: RM33 and RM23. Showtime: 8.30pm.

LIFE SDN BHD
8: HUMAN TRAFFICKING

In 2004, Datuk Faridah Merican introduced Life Sdn Bhd, with the purpose of sharing the true experiences of those living the Malaysian life. Since then, the Life Sdn Bhd series has shared with audiences topics such as breast cancer (2007), the HIV/AIDS epidemic (2010) and refugees (2011). This year’s eye-opening piece highlights the illegal trade of human beings for the purposes of reproduction, commercial sexual exploitation and forced labour.

Tickets: RM35 and RM25 (students and the disabled). Time: 8.30pm on April 12, Band 14 and 3pm on April 15.
