KUALA LUMPUR: The Royal Malaysian Police’s law graduates from the International Islamic University Malaysia (IIUM) held their first alumni dinner at the Seri Pacific Hotel here recently.

Since 1983, 263 policemen had graduated from IIUM. Currently, 42 policemen are reading law there.

Inspector-General of Police Tan Sri Ismail Omar hoped that the celebration would be made an annual event.

Also present were deputy Inspector-General of Police Datuk Seri Khalid Abu Bakar and UIIM deputy rector of academic and planning Professor Datuk Dr Md Tahir Azhar.
