Naim Holdings Signed Copyright Agreement With UPM

Naim Holdings Bhd has signed a copyright agreement with Universiti Putra Malaysia (UPM), to assist the university in developing a 100 million ringgit project on the development of labour-intensive industrial buildings.

The agreement, signed by Naim Holdings Bhd chief executive officer Dato' Mohd. Shafie Ahmad and UPM vice-chancellor and principal Prof. Dato' Ir. Dato' Dr. Mohd. Shafie Mohd. Ali, is for the development of seven buildings.

Naim Holdings will provide technical assistance and expertise in the development of new buildings, and will also provide the management of the buildings.

The project is expected to create new employment opportunities for people with disabilities in the industrial sector.

The agreement includes a comprehensive framework of cooperation to promote the development of labour-intensive industrial buildings. Naim Holdings will also provide the management of the buildings, and will be responsible for the ongoing maintenance of the facilities.

Naim Holdings Bhd is a leading property developer in Malaysia, with a focus on providing quality housing solutions for the growing urban population. The company has a strong track record in the development of labour-intensive industrial buildings, and has been actively involved in the sector for many years.

The UPM project is part of the company's strategy to continue to expand its footprint in the industrial sector, and to contribute to the economic development of the country.

The project is expected to be completed within the next five years, and will provide new employment opportunities for people with disabilities, as well as contribute to the overall development of the industrial sector in the country.
