Seen It All Before?

3 | HUNGARY
Pal Schmitt resigned as Hungary’s President on April 2 after journalists accused him of copying portions of his doctoral dissertation, but he wasn’t the world’s first political plagiarist.

Pal Schmitt
Semmelweis University revoked his Ph.D. in March; he denies any wrongdoing.

Karl-Theodor zu Guttenberg
The German Defense Minister stepped down in 2011.

Joe Biden
The 1987 presidential candidate admitted to copying an article during law school.

Anthony Albanese
The Australian politician borrowed a speech line from The American President.