ELLS Language Center has signed a Memorandum of Understanding (MoU) with Universiti Pertanian Malaysia (UPM) to provide English Language courses. The MoU aims to enhance the English proficiency of students at UPM, providing them with better employability opportunities.

The program will offer intensive English courses under the ELS Language Center'sdirection, allowing students to complete their courses within 4 weeks.

ELLS also encourages active learning through practical exercises and group discussions, fostering students' critical thinking skills.

Based on the MoU, ELS Language Center will work closely with UPM to develop and implement effective English language programs, tailored to meet the students' needs and industry standards.
