Umno continues to promote sanctity of Islam

MELAKA: Umno, the core component of the country’s ruling party, continues to spread the word of Islam, and hence, enabled Malaysia to become an exemplary model of an Islamic country, according to an academician.

Rector of Melaka Universiti Teknologi MARA (UiTM) Datuk Prof Dr Mizan Hitam said since it was established in 1946, Umno, as a Malay-based party, had never strayed from the struggle to uphold Islam.

“This is due to Umno’s commitment to work for a better Malaysia, a country that will provide the best for the development and prosperity of the people, as well as upholding the value of Islamic beliefs,” he told Bernama here.

Mizan said the role of Umno as the principal party in establishing and maintaining the independence of the country was undeniable.

He said Umno’s role was not just limited to the economic development of the country, but also in ensuring that the country remained a Muslim nation.

Mizan said the party had been active in promoting the values of Islam and ensuring the implementation of Islamic practices in the country.

Umno, as a party that represents the interests of the Muslims, had been working to ensure that the rights of the Muslims were safeguarded.

He added that the party had been involved in various initiatives to enhance the status of Muslims in the country.

Mizan said the party had been working towards the establishment of an Islamic-based economic system, which would ensure that the rights of the Muslims were protected.

He added that Umno had always been working towards the establishment of an Islamic-based economic system, which would ensure that the rights of the Muslims were protected.

In conclusion, Mizan said Umno would continue to promote the sanctity of Islam and ensure that the rights of the Muslims were protected.

Source: Bernama